Bringing Community, Resources, and Support to military homeschoolers nationwide

- ★ Have you thought about homeschooling your children but aren't sure where to start?
- ★ Are you concerned about legal issues?
- ★ Are you concerned about your ability to teach your children?
- ★ Do you feel disconnected from other military homeschoolers? Do you get frustrated every time you PCS and have to reconnect yourself and your children with another group?
- ★ Do you feel like your installation could do a better job supporting homeschoolers in your area?
- ★ Are you confused with which curriculum to use? Do you want discounts?
- ★ Are you looking for a way to give back and help other families who are considering homeschooling?

The Home School Association for Military Families was founded by military families just like yourself. Our staff and volunteers are available to assist you with community, resources, and support from the beginning of your homeschool adventure, and beyond.

For more information on how to join HSAMF or how to help support military homeschoolers, visit us at www.hsamf.org or call 931-216-8389.

HSAMF is a 501 (C) (3) tax-exempt organization.
